FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PENGUIN BAY WINERY'S 2011 RIESLING SHINES WITH ITS SIXTH GOLD MEDAL

Penguin Bay Winery, located on the east side of Seneca Lake in the Finger Lakes and owned by the Peterson family, won a gold medal for its 2011 Riesling at the 2013 San Francisco Chronicle Wine Competition, making it this vintage's sixth gold medal.

This semi-sweet style Riesling keeps impressing renowned judges with its subtle aromas of peach and mango. In 2012 this vintage was awarded five at five different competitions in California (US National, San Francisco International, Long Beach Grand Cru, Grand Harvest, and Los Angeles International).

The San Francisco Chronicle Wine Competition, established in 1983, holds an international reputation as the premier competition of American wines. This competition also awarded Penguin Bay three silver medals and four bronze.
