PENGUIN BAY WINERY WINS "BEST WHITE WINE" AT CALIFORNIA'S WINEMAKER CHALLENGE INTERNATIONAL

Hector, NY- February 7, 2014 - Penguin Bay Winery, located on the Seneca Lake Wine Trail in the Finger Lakes region of New York, won a Gold medal and "Best White Wine" for its 2012 Riesling at California's Winemaker Challenge International Wine Competition.

Penguin Bay Winery's 2012 Riesling has been impressing judges since its release last summer. So far this vintage has won six Gold Medals at wine competitions throughout the United States. The Penguin Bay 2012 Dry Riesling and 2012 Pinot Grigio were awarded silver medals at the Winemaker Challenge.

Dave Peterson, Owner of Penguin Bay Winery, remarked "Our Rieslings continue to take top awards in state, national and international competitions. The Finger Lakes has firmly established itself as the premier Riesling region in the United States and competes well against any region in the world. Our climate and soils create crisp Rieslings that cannot be duplicated anywhere else."

The Peterson Family opened Penguin Bay Winery in 2005. The tasting room is open year round and welcomes guests to experience their variety of wines ranging from dry to semi-sweet red and white wines, along with a selection of sparkling wines from its sister wineries, Goose Watch and Swedish Hill.
